

I respectfully ask that the FCC does not interfere with the current law on NJ books which protects consumers against unwanted telemarketing calls.

Please respect the citizens of New Jersey and the current Consumer Protection Law presently in use.

Respectfully,
Nancy Salvati